

Being healthy at all ages starts with teaching your children good health habits. Begin your child's life with ongoing care from a primary care physician, and help them build trust in caregivers. Most important, model good health habits at home!

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Birth:
Hep B | <input type="checkbox"/> 15 Months:
Pentacel (DTaP, IPV, Hib),
Hep A (if not started yet) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1-2 Weeks:
Newborn Check-up.
No Immunizations | <input type="checkbox"/> 18-24 Months:
Hep A #2 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2 Months:
Pentacel (DTaP, IPV & Hib), Hep B,
Pneumococcal, Rotavirus | <input type="checkbox"/> 4-5 Years:
(Preschool/Kindergarten)
ProQuad (Chicken Pox & MMR),
Kinrix (IPV & DTaP) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4 Months:
Pentacel (DTaP, IPV & Hib),
Pneumococcal, Rotavirus | <input type="checkbox"/> Junior High (7th and 10th grades)
through Pre-College:
TDaP, Hep A (if needed), HPV,
Meningitis, Chicken Pox
(if needed) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 6 Months:
Pentacel (DTaP, IPV & Hib),
Pneumococcal, Rotavirus, Hep B | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 9 Months:
No immunizations | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 12 Months:
Pneumococcal, MMR,
Chicken Pox, Hep A #1 | |